Oceanside, a quintessential historical beach town that delivers a mix of residential and daytime traffic, in addition to travelers from both near and far. As the third largest city in San Diego county and considered among the most affordable, Oceanside has become increasingly popular for homeowners with a growing draw for travelers.

What is Happening Around Oceanside

Oceanside Pier

Oceanside represents the only city in the county to have a pier, harbor, and amphitheater. Stretching out at an impressive 1,954 feet, Oceanside's pier is the longest wooden over-water pier on the West Coast of the United States. Walking the length of the pier provides awe-inspiring views of the horizon and the downtown coastline.

Harbor Village

Docking up to 950 vessels, Harbor Village boasts quaint village shopping at resort-style boutiques, top-name restaurants, and dining alfresco. Among the charming restaurants and retail, congenial people can be found strolling, jogging, embarking on high-sea adventures, or picnicking in mini-parks overlooking the harbor in this idyllic setting.

Sunset Market

This event has been a bright light in downtown Oceanside since August 2007 and is so much more than a farmers market. Thousands of residents and visitors alike gather weekly to enjoy four city blocks of over 180 vendors selling varied cooked meals, eclectic merchandise, and gourmet packaged foods, among live entertainment.

Local Museums

In the 1800s, Oceanside was merely a small coastal town. Slowly but surely people began laying roots. Today, visitors can see buildings and artifacts dating back to the 19th century. To honor the city's past and present, museums contain a collection of historical, cultural, and artistic exhibits. Most notable are Mission San Luis Rey, California Surf Museum, and Oceanside Museum of Art.
